

INDIAN PHILOSOPHERS' DAY

The Department of Philosophy, Salipur Autonomous College, Salipur, Odisha celebrated Indian Philosophers' Day 2024 sponsored by Indian Council of Philosophical Research, New Delhi on 3rd August, 2024 in two separate sessions. It was a one-day seminar on Indian Philosophical Tradition.

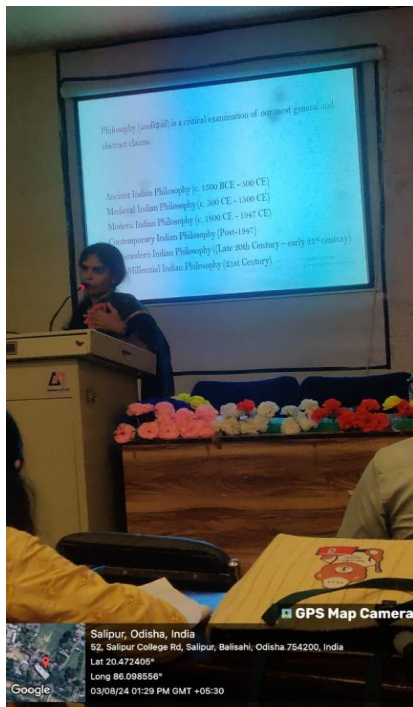

In the first session, two Lecture Programmes were held at Madhusudan Auditorium of the college at 10.30 AM. Dr. Sangita Misra, Principal of the college presided over 1st session. Guests were welcomed with bouquets by the students. Principal of the college deliver the welcome speech and highlighted the significance of organizing Indian Philosophers' Day. Dr. Manisha Tripathy, HOD, Department of Philosophy gave the key note address and in her welcome address and introductory remarks, she highlighted the significance of celebrating Indian Philosophers' Day. Mr. Bedabyasa Bhanja, Lecturer in Philosophy introduced the guests. Sehenaz Parween, Lecturer assisted in felicitating the guests with scarfs.

Prof. (Dr.) Patitapabana Das, Prof. of Philosophy, Ravenshaw University, Cuttack gave a talk on "In Search of Moral Hero" and try to establish morality in Indian Philosophical context. Another Resource Person of 1st session Dr. Sreetama Misra, Assistant Prof. (Philosophy), IIT, BBSR. delivered an enlightening talk on "Indian Philosophy Through the Ages: Addressing Post Millennium Concerns" She pointed out the foremost articulation of Indian Philosophy is that, it depicts the idea of the entire human civilization, and highlight the dynamic interplay between tradition and modernity in post-millennium Indian Philosophy, underscoring its relevance in addressing the pressing issues of our time.

The 2nd session held at 2 PM at the Madhusudan Auditorium of the college with another two Lecture Programmes. Dr. Sangita Misra, Principal of the College presided over this session. Dr. Manisha Tripathy, HOD of the department pointing to the major philosophical branches, i.e., Epistemology, Aesthetics and Ethics. Mrs. Sahenaz Parween, Lecturer of the Department introduced the guests and Mr Bedabyasa Bhanja, Lecturer of the Department assisted in honouring the Resource Person.

Dr. Manoranjan Mallick, Asst. Prof. of the PG Department of Philosophy of Utkal University, Bhubaneswar delivered a talk on "Sankara's Concept of Self". His paper aims at revealing the intricacy of Sankara's concept of self and its relation with the world. Another Resource Person of 2nd session Dr. Lakshman Patra, Asst. Prof. in Philosophy, Vikram Dev University, Jeypore delivered a talk on "Samkhya Theory of Evolution: An Analytical Review" and emphasised on the process of evolution as natural.

1ST SESSION

2ND SESSION

